Hubert of the Hartford association, who spoke upon the subject The Y. M. C. A. as a Factor in the Community. Among the many helpful thoughts presented Mr. Hubert emphasized the fact that the association was for all men regardless of creed or nationality, that men were attracted through fellowship, and were should be made to feel that they had a share in the association. He gave many helpful illustrations from his work in Hartford and also in Holyoke, where he was general secretary before being called to Hartford.

John McCoy.

The death of John McCoy occurred at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been suffering from Bright's disease. Mr. McCoy was born in Norwich and when horse cars were operated in this city he drove for the Norwich Street Railway company, subsequently taking a position as motorman. In late years Mr. McCoy was employed as a polisher for the Hopkins & Allen Arms company, and was steadily engaged at his trade until recently. Several years ago Mr. McCoy figured in an accident and lost one of his legs by the cars. He resided with his father, Patrick McCoy, at 183 North Main street, until the latter's death.

Peter Hunter.

There are many here who will learn with regret of the death of Peter Hunter, which occurred Monday from pleuro-pneumonia at Chester, Pa., at the age of 59. He had many friends among Norwich residents, who have at different times worked at Chester in the Eddystone Print works, where he was a former superintendent. He was a native of Glasgow. Scotland and a graduate of the Andersonian university and for 12 years was general manager of the Eddystone print works near Chester. He was ordained an elegent the Methodist church in 1889, which gave him the title of Rev., and he assisted much in church work.
